CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—New York won a pitchers' battle, 2 to 1. here today. Caldwell pitched a splendid game and deserved to win. He allowed but four hits and no two came in one round. Three of the four were two-baggers, but they didn't count for much. Had Zinn held Lord's smash in the sixth it would have been a case of shutout for the Sox. In the opening round New York bunched a scratch hit, a base on balls and a double. CHICAGO. CHICAGO.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 2.—St. Louis took the last game of the series today, 4 to 2. giving Boston an even break on the series. Baumgardner, who pitched for the locals, held the Red Sox safe through all the game, while Stahl's pitchers' selections were pounded to all corners of the lot. Hall, who started, was relieved in the fourth, after four runs had been scored off his delivery. Bedient then took up the task and held the locals safe until he was relieved to allow Henricksen to swing. Pape finished the game.

TAVERN "STEAK" IS MERKLE AND BECKER WIN FOR NEW YORK

Giants Get Only Five Hits, but Three of These Are Homers.

By International News Service. BROOKLYN, Aug. 3.—Fifteen thousand bugs watched the Cubs trim the Dodgers twice today, 2 to 0 and 5 to 1. Leffield allowed but three hits in the opener. The second was a queer battle, the Cubs getting but three hits. One hit in the ninth mixed with errors counted four Cub runs. Allen pitched a swell game, but his teammates lost it for him. CHICAGO.

WON BY ESTHER W By International News Service. CLEVELAND, Aug. 3 .- Despite

a heavy track from yesterday's rain, Esther W., the phenomenal bay mare by Director Moore's first dam, Madam Arundel, by Guy-Wilkes, with Driver Coakley up today won the big Tavern "steak" here in 2:081/4 which tied the record for the event. The record tied by Esther was made by Argot Hal in 1911. The event is the principal amateur race of the season here. Driver Coakley will train and drive the mare hereafter in place of Walter Cox. The added and last day of the grand circuit meeting brought a crowd. A feature not on the programme was the exhibition of C. K. G. Billings' string, returned yesterday from Moscow, Russia. The championship pacing sweepstake was reduced by withdrawals to a field of five. Evelyn W., Hal B. Jr., were heat winners and went into the fourth beat, in which Evelyn W. showed the way home and won the race. The fastest heat of the race was the second, done in 2:05, which was also the fastest of the day. The brush of the heat winners was the slowest of the race, Shawby, a strong favorite driven by Murray, almost made the 2:15 trot a three-heat affair, being nosed out in the third by Funny Crank.

CALIFORNIA WILL

VOTE ON RACING SACRAMENTO, Cal., Aug. 3 .- The

initiative measure seeking to enact a law legalizing race track betting in California and to establish a racing commission having charge of racing and betting will go on the ballot for ac-tion at the general election next No-vember. The petition contains upward of 60,000 signatures, while 31,000 is the number required by law.
